Documents that are determined by the Clerk's Office to be procedurally deficient must be corrected and returned for filing within seven (7) days from the date of this notice. Previously set deadlines will not be automatically extended by this deficiency notice. Copies of the revised document must be served upon all other parties. The substance of the document must not be changed; only the procedural deficiency is to be corrected. If the initial filing was untimely or if the revised document is not resubmitted to the Clerk's Office for filing within the seven (7) days, a motion for leave to file instanter must accompany it, and must also be served upon all other parties.

Today this office "Received" your brief, which has been deemed deficient for filing due to the following procedural concern(s):

There is no required "Short Appendix" attached to the appellant's or petitioner's main brief. See Cir. R. 30. There appears to be an addendum attached to the opening brief, but no short appendix.

A concise statement of the case, setting out the facts relevant to the issues submitted for review. See Fed. R. App. P. 28(a)(6). *The court no longer requires the main heading "Statement of Facts". Facts must now be incorporated into "Statement of Case".

The resubmission will be deemed timely if the electronic filing is accomplished within seven (7) days of this notice (by 11:59 pm on the seventh day of this notice).

Sincerely,
Clerk of the Court

By: Deputy Clerk:

Stefan Prater

NOTE: Counsel should notify the Clerk's Office within two (2) days of the deficiency letter if they would like the deficient briefs returned at counsel's expense. If not, the deficient briefs will be discarded.
